

SELECTION OF THREE GRADUATE SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Work presented by Marc-Olivier Moutier,
Nina Moutada, Jeanne Garneau-Lévesque,
Victor and Thomas Bell

NAD

NAD is part of UQAC (Universite de Quebec a Chicoutimi) and is located in Montreal

405 rue Ogilvy, 3e étage
Montréal (Québec)
H3N 1M3

It used to be a private school (and really expensive) but when NAD joined UQAC it became a public school.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROGRAM

NAD offers two bachelors degree: one is video games and 3D effects and one in After effects and visual effects. Each program lasts 3 years.

NAD also offers a Certificate in 3D animation and digital design that takes about a year.

NAD also offers a Masters degree in Art, profile creation, based on 3D animation and digital design.

APPLICATION GUIDELINE

INFORMATION

For the Masters program:

- Need to have a bachelors in Design or in Cinema or Theatre or Digital Art with a GPA of 3.2 on 4,3.

If going in Creation:

- Give them a CV showing our experience in the subject
- 20 to 30 pictures and-or multimedia files readable on QuickTime on a CD or DVD that works on Mac and PC and a description of the projects.
- A 2 page max text describing what you would like to research during your master
- 3 provet reports on the candidat.

APPLICATION GUIDELINE INFORMATION

If going in Research:

- Give a CV showing our interest in research and teaching.
- 20 to 30 pictures and-or multimedia files readable on QuickTime on a CD or DVD that works on Mac and PC and a description of the projects
- A 2 page max text describing what you would like to research during your master.