

Canadian
Concordia University
Montreal, Canada

US University
ArtCenter
Pasadena, California, U.S.A

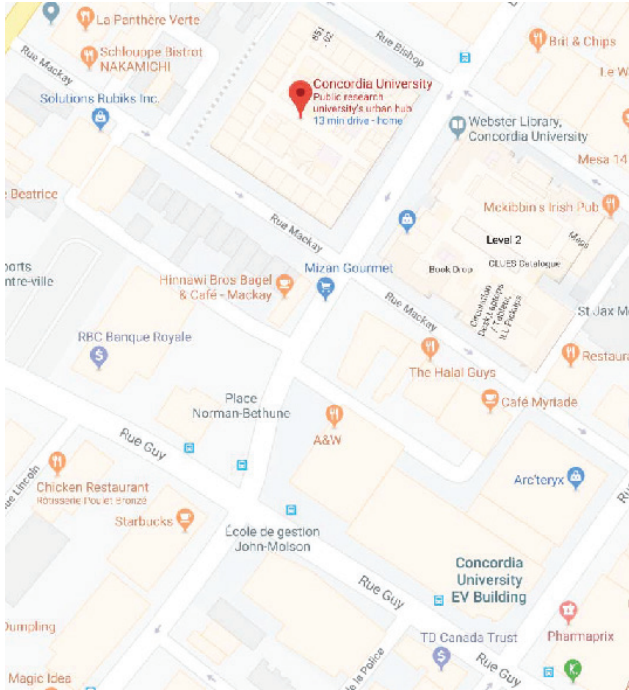

International
Northumbria University
Newcastle, UK

Alessandra Scarpone

George Seppala

Richard Kennedy

Sevan Belleau

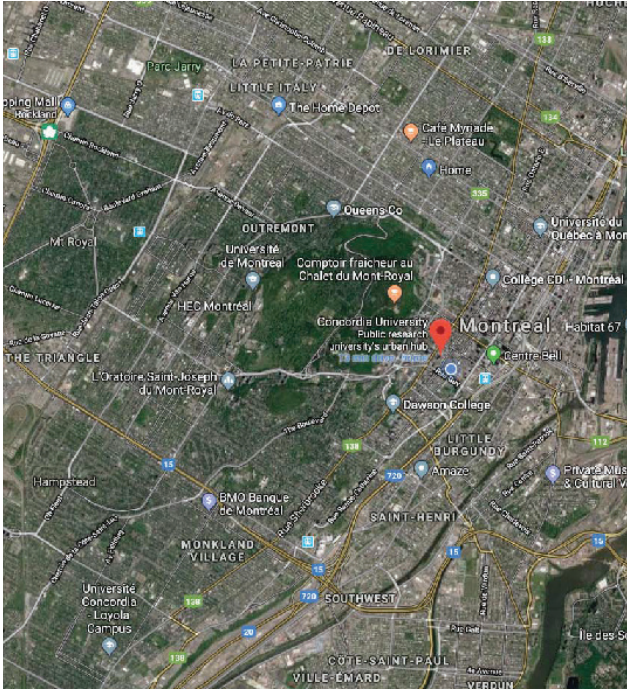

Canadian Concordia University

Montreal, Canada

About the school (name, location, reputation with URL)

Concordia MDes program.

Founded in 1974 Concordia is a public university located in Montreal, Quebec, is one of Canada.

Information about the program (specialization, equipment, faculty);
Graduate Environmental Design Degree

Concordia's design department encourages integrative and multidisciplinary research and practice. Faculty members have backgrounds in architecture, industrial, graphic, fashion design and more. For students, the program fosters experimental and collaborative practices between disciplines. Theory and research focuses on sustainability in social, environmental and economic context.

Application Guideline Information (official documents; written forms; portfolio (online/pdf/print); references etc.)

Eligibility for the program is based on a... portfolio of creative works,
a letter of intent including potential research foci. and research question, transcript with a GPA of 3.00 or higher letters of reference a diploma or undergrad degree in a relevant field

Students can expect to pay per semester...
$1,577 as a resident of Quebec
$3,437 as a out of province resident of Canada
$7,329 as a international student

The course is 45 credits including core courses and some electives relevant to design. It is 2 years full-time. Students complete a thesis paper and research paper.

Some of the facilities included at the school are...
Metal shop
Wood Shop,
Rapid Prototyping lab,
Computers,
a Sensor lab,
Book binding